

Congressman Tom McClintock Endorses Ted Gaines
for Board of Equalization

SACRAMENTO, CA – Congressman Tom McClintock (R-Granite Bay) today announced his endorsement of Senator Ted Gaines (R-El Dorado Hills) for the Board of Equalization (BOE) District 1 seat. Senator Gaines is a candidate in 2018 for BOE District 1, which is currently represented by George Runner, who is leaving the Board in 2018 due to term limits.

"It is an honor to earn the endorsement of Congressman Tom McClintock for this important office," said Senator Gaines. "I'm running for the BOE to advocate for and protect taxpayers, small business owners and families. I am the only candidate California taxpayers can count on to deliver proven conservative leadership at the BOE."

Congressman McClintock joins both Diane Harkey and George Runner, the two incumbent Republican Members of the Board, in supporting Ted Gaines for the BOE. These early endorsements from conservative leaders in California are another clear sign that Gaines' Board of Equalization campaign is gaining momentum.

"I've served alongside Tom McClintock for many years," said Senator Gaines. "Together we have helped stop billions of dollars in tax increases. There is no greater leader of the conservative cause in California than Tom. I look forward to continuing to work with Tom McClintock to fight on behalf of taxpayers on the Board of Equalization."
