LONG BEACH, CA -- Keeping up his stunning pace of locking down influential support in his campaign for California State Insurance Commissioner, today State Senator Ricardo Lara scored an endorsement from the International Union of Painters and Allied Trades (IUPAT) District Council 16.

In announcing their endorsement, the IUPAT District Council 16 released the following statement:

"The Painters and Allied Trades District Council 16 are thrilled to back Ricardo Lara for California Insurance Commissioner. He's been a champion and a fierce advocate for the cause of economic and social justice, and for workers' rights, good wages and benefits. We know he will continue to be an outspoken, bold and vigorous advocate for working families as our next State Insurance Commissioner. He's got our wholehearted support."
