

Assemblyman Devon Mathis Holds Campaign Kick off
Announces Bid for 2018 Re-election Campaign

(Visalia, California) Assemblyman Devon Mathis (R) announced he is running for his third term representing District 26 at the Visalia Veterans' Memorial Building, surrounded by family and supporters including Phil Cox, Former Assemblyman Bill Maze, and Retired Woodlake Chief of Police John Zapalac.

John Zapalac, Retired Woodlake Chief of Police, "It is refreshing to see an elected official actually working for all members of his district!"

Former Assemblyman Bill Maze spoke of Mathis, "He's done a great job of reaching out, working hard...I appreciate the work Devon has done. I think he's done a good job for us here locally and he's reaching out. It's a big district to represent and it's a diverse district to represent. It's a pleasure for me to represent him and support Devon in his efforts."

Assemblyman Mathis won the state Assembly seat in 2014 and in 2016 with 60% of the vote. He served as Vice Chair of the California Assembly Agriculture Committee in 2016 and continues to represent the people of Tulare, Inyo, and a portion of Kern counties by serving on the California Assembly Agriculture, Budget, Water Parks and Wildlife, and Veterans Affairs Committees.
