

UNITED FARM WORKERS (UFW) ENDORSES MIKE ENG FOR STATE SENATE

*Historic Union Co-Founded by Cesar Chavez & Dolores Huerta

EL MONTE, CA — The United Farm Workers (UFW) has endorsed former Assemblymember & Educator Mike Eng for the open 22nd State Senate District.

Mike Eng's "actions as a legislator have demonstrated that he is ally not just to farm worker families, but to immigrant families throughout this great state,” said Arturo S. Rodriguez, President of the United Farms Workers of America.

Mike’s campaign for State Senate has gathered a huge amount of momentum lately with major endorsements from organizations like the United Farm Workers, UFCW, SEIU California, Communication Workers of America, International Longshore Workers Unions, Equality California, numerous members of the State Assembly and Senate, and the vast majority of elected officials from communities within the 22nd State Senate District. All of the best known District leaders – including incumbent Senator Ed Hernandez, Supervisors Hilda Solis and Kathryn Barger, Congress members Judy Chu and Grace Napolitano and Assemblymember Ed Chau – are supporting Mike.

Last month, Mike was overwhelmingly recommended for official endorsement by California Democratic Party at the local SD 22 caucus with 91% of the delegate vote.

Mike Eng previously served in the State Assembly, on the L.A. Community College District Board of Trustees, and on the Monterey Park City Council.
