

JUDGE
STEVEN
BAILEY [RET.]
FOR ATTORNEY GENERAL

---

Laura,

It's been a great month campaigning in the new year. I have continued to travel up and down the state meeting with voters, volunteers, elected leaders, and members of law enforcement.

I recently met with conservative State Senator Joel Anderson in Sacramento and I am proud to report that he joined his colleagues Ted Gaines, John Moorlach, and Jim Nielsen in endorsing me.

While in the capitol, I met with Assemblywoman Melissa Melendez. The California State Senate unanimously passed a bill she's been tirelessly fighting for since she was first elected - the Legislative Employees Whistleblower Protection Act which will protect workers from retaliation if they report misconduct by a legislator or staff member. I'm proud to support this bill and strongly urge the governor to sign it right away.

Speaking of misconduct, it's been over 100 days since more than 140 women came forward to condemn years of rampant sexual harassment in the state capitol and the Attorney General has done absolutely nothing about it.

But he's been anything but silent when it comes to issuing outrageous and irresponsible threats to prosecute California employers.

All of this underscores why we need a new Attorney General. Attorneys General of the past and present have been intoxicated by power and prestige, but I was born and raised in California, and you know I will make protecting California my first and only priority as Attorney General.

MAKE A QUICK DONATION ONLINE

I'm the only candidate with a background in criminal justice and law enforcement. That is why I alone have earned the endorsement of veteran law enforcement leaders. With another report showing crime on the rise across California, now is the time to elect an Attorney General with my background, and we're driving this message home.

Check out this interview with KUSI, San Diego's leading TV news station, where I discuss how I will rely on my background as a superior court judge as Attorney General.

California needs an Attorney General whose only focus is enforcing the law and protecting our communities. That is a message that will win in 2018, but I couldn't do any of this without your encouragement and the dogged determination of our staff and volunteers.

Thank you,

JUDGE STEVEN BAILEY (RET.)
