Sydney Kamlager endorsed by influential women members in state Senate and Assembly

LOS ANGELES – Democrat Sydney Kamlager has received endorsements from seven influential women members serving in the California State Legislature in her 54th Assembly District Special Election Primary race on Tuesday, April 3, 2018.

Ms. Kamlager has garnered support from state Senate members Toni Atkins, Hannah-Beth Jackson and Nancy Skinner, and state Assembly Members Cristina Garcia, Laura Friedman, Sharon Quirk-Silva, and Blanca Rubio.

Ms. Kamlager said, "I'm honored to have the endorsement of leading women members of the state Senate and Assembly in my Special Election campaign for the 54th Assembly District. The seven women backing my campaign are particularly notable for their policy leadership on pay equity, reproductive rights, early care and education, and affordable health care. I greatly appreciate their endorsement as I work to grow my support among registered voters in the 54th Assembly District."

Ms. Kamlager serves as president of the Los Angeles Community College District (LACCD) Board of Trustees and district director to California State Senator Holly J. Mitchell. She won election to the LACCD Board of Trustees in March 2015. The 54th Assembly District represents residents in South L.A., West L.A., Southwest L.A. and the City of Culver City.
