

Tyler Diep Outraises Greg Haskins 35 to 1 in Race for AD72

Diep Clearly Demonstrates He's the Only Republican Capable of Raising the Funds Needed to Hold AD72

(Orange County, CA) – Based on an extensive analysis of the end of year campaign finance disclosures in AD72 by OCPolitical.com, Diep Outraised Haskins 35 to 1 and Haskins spent nearly all of the $12,770 he raised. Haskin's campaign only had $446 cash-on-hand, excluding his campaign's debt.

Since launching his campaign 6 months ago, Diep has gained strong momentum for his candidacy. Diep has been endorsed by the district's two previous Assemblymembers along with current 72nd district Assemblyman Travis Allen. Other notable endorsements include the Lincoln Club of Orange County and Orange County's top law enforcement officials, Sheriff Hutchens and DA Rackauckas. More than a dozen other state and local elected officials have also thrown their support behind Diep. Diep's hard work and commitment has translated into successful financial support. The $455,000 that Diep has amassed for his Assembly race does not include any personal loans or other outstanding debt. The campaign ended the quarter with over $435,000 cash on hand. Nearly all of Diep's money was raised locally.

Further analysis by OCPolitical.com points to the need for Republicans to further consolidate behind Diep. While Democrat Josh Lowenthal has a little more than half of the cash-on-hand of Diep – the prospect of Diep spending precious resources defending against a futile primary challenge rather than investing in the general election, put the R+5 district unnecessarily at risk.

Diep was first elected to the Westminster City Council in 2008. He has been a strong taxpayer advocate, is committed to job creation and supporting small businesses, and has prioritized hiring more police officers and road repair while on the city council.

The 72nd District includes all of Westminster, Garden Grove, Fountain Valley, Los Alamitos, Seal Beach, a portion of Huntington Beach and the unincorporated county island of Midway City. Diep's endorsement list currently includes:
