Dave Min Receives Endorsement by Democrats from the 45th Congressional District

SAN DIEGO - Dave Min has received over 60% of the vote from delegates from the 45th Congressional District at the California Democratic Party Convention.

"I'm honored by the overwhelming support from Orange County Democratic leaders and grassroots activists, and I look forward to the state convention ratifying the decision of local Democrats," said Min. "Orange County Democrats have spoken resoundingly. They know I'm the candidate best-positioned to defeat Congresswoman Walters and stand up to Donald Trump."

Min received over 60% of the vote, outpacing his closest opponent by over 40 points. The endorsement is scheduled to be ratified by the state convention tomorrow.

Dave Min is a nationally-recognized expert on economic policy who has fought to protect and strengthen economic opportunity for working Americans for nearly two decades.
