Dr. Asif Mahmood Launches New Website And Detailed Policy Plan for Insurance Commissioner's Office

LOS ANGELES – Monday, April 16, 2018 – With 49 days until Election Day, Dr. Asif Mahmood's campaign for Insurance Commissioner has launched a new campaign website. The website includes detailed and aggressive plans to improve the lives of Californians.

The new site, found at Asif2018.com, lists his numerous endorsements from around the state and an extensive compilation of press releases and media appearances.

The website details Dr. Mahmood's aggressive plans to increase mental healthcare practitioners by 2025, enact medicare for all, integrate innovation into the insurance commissioner's office, better prosecute fraud and protect California consumers, and prepare the state for future natural disasters. For more information visit Mahmood's website, or view his attached policy plan.

The website also provides a way for voters to get involved with the campaign. Supporters can now sign up to volunteer, endorse Dr. Mahmood or donate via the website. As Election Day approaches, Dr. Mahmood looks forward to working with his supporters from all over California to help register eligible voters, encourage voters to turn out and inform Californians about his campaign.
