Katie Porter Raises Over $1 Million in Race to Unseat Mimi Walters, Out-raises Democratic Opponents

With Top Notch Endorsements, and all polling showing Katie in the lead, Katie is best positioned to win the June primary and to unseat Mimi Walters in November

Irvine -- Leading CA-45 Congressional candidate Katie Porter announced raising over $289,000 in the first quarter of 2018, bringing her total fundraising to over $1,030,000 with nearly $600,000 cash on hand from well over 11,000 individual contributors and over 16,000 contributions.

Katie out-raised her closest Democratic primary opponent by over $100,000 with nearly $200,000 more cash on hand.

Katie earned early endorsements from Senators Kamala Harris and Elizabeth Warren and was the first House challenger to receive the endorsement from EMILY's List.

Katie Porter is a UC Irvine Professor of Law, mother of three, and consumer advocate who has spent decades taking on the big banks that hurt middle-class families – and winning. Now, she's taking that fight against the powerful special interests to Washington.
