California's Workers Endorse Salas for re-election

Keeping his promise to fight for More Water, More Jobs, Better Schools and Safer Neighborhoods

BAKERSFIELD, CA – Assemblymember Rudy Salas has once again received the endorsement from California's workers. The California Association of Professional Scientists (CAPS), the Professional Engineers in California Government (PECG), the Association of California State Supervisors (ACSS) and the California State Retirees (CSR) have all endorsed Assemblymember Salas for his re-election to the 32nd Assembly District.

"These men and woman are truly dedicated to making the Central Valley and California a great place to live and I am proud to earn their trust and support," said Assemblymember Salas.

- CAPS represents thousands of members who protect the public from life-threatening diseases, safeguard our wildlife and abundant natural resources, and protect out air and water from toxic waste and pollution. In their letter they wrote "After your election, we know you will continue to serve our state and your constituents with distinction."
- PECG represents thousands of state-employed engineers and professionals responsible for designing and inspecting California's highways and bridges, ensuring schools and hospitals are safe during earthquakes, and protecting our air, water and beaches. In their letter they cite, "Given your proven commitment to public servants."
- ACSS and the labor organizations represent managers and workers from patient care, to hospitals and schools, local government, our universities, doctors and nurses, and emergency medical technicians and paramedics. In their letter they wrote "this endorsement acknowledges your interest in the issues affecting workers any your commitment to addressing the needs of all the hard-working men and women in your District."
- CSR represents over 35,000 individuals who have dedicated their careers to public service and work to protect the hard-earned pension and health care benefits of retired employees. In their letter they wrote "Given your commitment to state retirees, CSR looks forward to working with you."
