First Responders and Law Enforcement Groups support James Ramos for State Assembly

San Bernardino -- County Supervisor James Ramos continues to pick up support in his bid for the 40th State Assembly District.

Joining local police, deputies and law enforcement leaders in support of James Ramos for Assembly are the following groups:

California Professional Firefighters (CPF)

Police Officers Research Association of California (PORAC)

California Association of Highway Patrolmen

CAL FIRE Local 2881

California Coalition of Law Enforcement Associations

"As a County Supervisor James Ramos has proven that he is a strong supporter and will work closely with first responders," said Brian Rice, CPF President. "California Professional Firefighters supports his campaign for State Assembly and looks forward to working with him."

“It is an honor to have the support of these groups that represent thousands of frontline first responders and law enforcement officers,” said Supervisor Ramos.

Ramos, a Democrat, has served as a Supervisor of San Bernardino County since 2012. In 2015, he was unanimously elected by his colleagues to serve as Board Chairman. Ramos was the first Native American to be elected to the Board of Supervisors, as well as to the San Bernardino Community College Board of Trustees, on which he served from 2005-12.

James and his wife of 28 years, Terri, are the proud parents of four children and three grandchildren.

Political Notes on Assembly District 40

Assembly District 40 includes the cities of San Bernardino, Redlands, Highland, Loma Linda and Rancho Cucamonga. It will be one of the top targeted Assembly seats in 2018. Supervisor Ramos currently represents over half of the Assembly District. He won his first term in November 2012 when he beat the incumbent Supervisor by 19%. He was reelected to the board in June of 2016 with almost 65% of the vote.
