SALINAS VALLEY LEADER ANNA CABALLERO ENDORSES ROBERT RIVAS AS THE CLEAR CHOICE FOR ASSEMBLY

RESIDENTS OF ASSEMBLY DISTRICT 30

SALINAS, Ca. -- Assemblymember Anna Caballero has officially endorsed San Benito County Supervisor Robert Rivas in the race for the AD 30 seat.

Caballero is running for State Senate as she completes her third term in the Assembly. Caballero said her support of Rivas comes from watching him effectively tackle difficult issues first as Field Representative in her district office and later when Rivas was elected to the Board of Supervisors in San Benito County.

"I support Robert Rivas because he is a real leader. I trust him because I've seen him in action. He worked for me in Salinas and then ran for and won a seat on the San Benito County Board of Supervisors. I've seen him take on tough issues and advocate for state resources for our communities," Caballero said.

"I urge you to vote for Robert Rivas," said Caballero.

Caballero's endorsement is particularly appreciated, Rivas said, because of their close collaboration over the years.

"Anna Caballero is a dedicated public servant who leads by example," Rivas said. "I look forward to serving with her in the state Legislature to take on important challenges like protecting the environment, reducing homelessness, creating equal opportunities for good paying jobs and making sure public safety personnel have adequate resources."

Rivas is the only candidate endorsed by the California Democratic Party. He has been endorsed by an extensive list of labor and professional groups including the California Teachers Association, the California Nurses Association, California Professional Firefighters Association, the California Labor Federation, SEIU, and AFSCME. Rivas has been endorsed by more than 80 local elected officials and many state and local office holders. Rivas is also endorsed by the California Legislative Latino Caucus, Equality California, and the GLBTQ Alliance of Santa Cruz County.
