California's Lieutenant Governor Backs Rouda in CA-48 Bid

NEWPORT BEACH, CA -- Today, technology entrepreneur and businessman Harley Rouda secured the powerful endorsement of California Lieutenant Governor Gavin Newsom.

In a statement released following the announced endorsement, Lt. Governor Gavin Newsom declared:

"I am proud to endorse Harley Rouda for Congress. I know he will be an effective and fearless fighter for the people of Orange County, and will work to move all of America forward."

Last week, Rouda received high-powered endorsements from:

- Former Governor of Vermont and DNC Chair Howard Dean
- U.S. Congressman Ted Lieu
- U.S. Congresswoman Julia Brownley
- California Board of Equalization Member Fiona Ma
- California Democratic Party Vice Chair Alex Rooker
- California Democratic Party Controller Dan Weitzman

Recently, Rouda released a game-changing ad entitled "Rouda vs. Rohrabacher Debate: Moderated by Jason Alexander," featuring a mock debate between Rouda and incumbent Congressman Dana Rohrabacher. The debate was moderated by famed actor Jason Alexander, focusing on a wide variety of issues, including immigration, climate change, and Russian interference in the 2016 election.
