New Janz Ad: Devin Nunes left Valley “High and Dry” in Failure to Address Water Crisis

Fresno, CA (September 5th, 2018) - The Andrew Janz for Congress campaign released a new ad today for television and digital, targeting Devin Nunes for handing out special interest favors instead of solving the water crisis devastating Valley farmers and families. Devin Nunes has never passed a water bill in the nearly two decades he’s served in Congress, and in fact, pushed for a bill that helped his corporate mega-donor use more water than anyone else in California.

Andrew Janz is a Deputy District Attorney for Fresno County, where he was assigned to the Violent Crimes Unit before entering the race against 8- term incumbent Rep. Devin Nunes after his infamous midnight Uber trip to the White House last spring. Andrew Janz is 34 years old and resides in Fresno with his wife Heather and their two dogs.

Devin Nunes is the 8 term incumbent for California Congressional District 22 who became a national lightning rod after his midnight trip to the White House in 2017. Most recently Devin Nunes has come under national and local scrutiny for his most recent ethical missteps in spending thousands of campaign dollars on Boston Celtics tickets, wine tours, and Las Vegas getaways.
