California Correctional Peace Officers Association Endorse Ramos for State Assembly

Prison guards join law enforcement groups in support of Ramos

(Rancho Cucamonga, CA) – The California Correctional Peace Officers Association (CCPOA) has officially endorsed County Supervisor James Ramos for State Assembly.

"The California Correctional Peace Officers Association are proud to support Supervisor James Ramos for State Assembly," said President Chuck Alexander. "James has a strong record of standing with the men and women of law enforcement and we know that his priorities include keeping our communities safe."

CCPOA joins every major law enforcement group and Crime Victims United in their unanimous support of Supervisor Ramos for Assembly.

"I know that CCPOA walks the toughest beat in the state and I'm honored that they are supporting my campaign for State Assembly," said Supervisor Ramos.

Ramos, a Democrat, has served as a Supervisor of San Bernardino County since 2012. In 2015, he was unanimously elected by his colleagues to serve as Board Chairman. Ramos was the first Native American to be elected to the Board of Supervisors, as well as to the San Bernardino Community College Board of Trustees, on which he served from 2005-12.

James and his wife of 28 years, Terri, are the proud parents of four children and have three grandchildren. To learn more about the Ramos campaign visit the website at www.jamesramos.org
