Ramos Campaign Launches Television Advertising

Ad highlights the Ramos Record and his work helping homeless veterans

Rancho Cucamonga – The Ramos for Assembly campaign launched its first television advertisement. The ad highlights the Ramos record – working for more services for homeless veterans and growing the local economy. It also includes his commitment to safe neighborhoods and the support he has from various law enforcement groups and Crime Victims United.

The ad started this week and is running throughout the 40th Assembly District.

The ad can be seen here –

Ramos Bio

Ramos, a Democrat, has served as a Supervisor of San Bernardino County since 2012. In 2015, he was unanimously elected by his colleagues to serve as Board Chairman. Ramos was the first Native American to be elected to the Board of Supervisors, as well as to the San Bernardino Community College Board of Trustees, on which he served from 2005-12.

James and his wife of 28 years, Terri, are the proud parents of four children and have three grandchildren.

Political Notes on Assembly District 40

Assembly District 40 includes the cities of San Bernardino, Redlands, Highland, Loma Linda and Rancho Cucamonga and is one of the top targeted Assembly seats in 2018. Supervisor Ramos currently represents over half of the assembly district.

He won his first term in November 2012 when he beat the incumbent supervisor by 19%. He was reelected to the board in June of 2016 with almost 65% of the vote.

Since 2015 the district has seen a surge in Democratic registration, with Democrats now outnumbering Republicans by over 22,000 voters.
