OAKLAND MAYOR LIBBY SCHAAF ENDORSED BY CALIFORNIA GOVERNOR JERRY BROWN

OAKLAND, CA – California Governor Jerry Brown endorsed Oakland Mayor Libby Schaaf today, praising the Mayor for her continued efforts to lift Oakland’s economy out of stagnation and set it on a path of sustainable growth.

“Libby Schaaf has been the kind of creative leader Oakland needs. As mayor, she has balanced the budget and created the city's first rainy day fund — Oakland's credit rating is up and the long-awaited building boom has begun. I'm glad to endorse her for reelection,” said Brown.

Mayor Schaaf is also endorsed by both U.S. Senators of California — Senator Kamala Harris and Senator Dianne Feinstein — as well as former Senator Barbara Boxer. A comprehensive list of Mayor Schaaf’s endorsements can be found on her website at libbyforoakland.com/endorsements.
