Dear Friend,

The response to Susan Rubio’s smear campaign has been overwhelming — and heartwarming! We greatly appreciate the support and encouragement to stand up to her disgraceful campaign tactics. As you know, our campaign absolutely had nothing to do with exposing Rubio for taking money from the private prison contractor, and it is dishonest for her to make that accusation.

We’re excited to report that her dirty trick has backfired, and the reaction has been a big boost in volunteers for phoning, precinct walking and more! Your words of encouragement — and your actions — are inspiring.

A supporter even contacted us to point out that CoreCivic, the private prison contractor from Tennessee that worked with the Trump Administration to separate immigrant families, gave $10,000 to one of the Independent Expenditure Committees (deceptively named “Californians for Jobs and a Strong Economy”) that has spent $275,000 on Rubio’s behalf. Rubio conveniently failed to mention it, nor any attempt to have THAT contribution returned.

You too can send Susan Rubio a strong message of condemnation by joining Mike's growing list of volunteers headed for our campaign headquarters.
