Long List of Local Mayors Endorse Rudy Salas for Re-election

Keeping his promise to fight for More Water, More Jobs, Better Schools and Safer Neighborhoods

BAKERSFIELD, CA – Assemblymember Rudy Salas has received the endorsement of a long list of local mayors and serving cities across the 32nd Assembly District, including: Jose Gurrola, Mayor, City of Arvin; Alvaro Preciado, Mayor, City of Avenal; Raymond Lerma, Mayor, City of Corcoran; Grace Vallejo, Mayor, City of Delano; Ray Madrigal, Mayor, City of Lemoore; Manuel Cantu Jr, Mayor, City of McFarland; and Gilbert Reyna, Mayor, City of Wasco.

“I’m proud to support Assemblymember Salas because he truly cares about the well-being our community,” said Lemoore Mayor Ray Madrigal. “Assemblymember Salas is a strong advocate for keeping our families and our kids safe and was instrumental in bringing millions of dollars for our public safety needs and saving FFA (Future Farmers of America) for our students. Rudy is a strong voice for us and he delivers for the Valley.”

“I am honored to receive the support of local mayors who lead our communities and serve families throughout the Valley,” said Assemblymember Salas. “The interests and needs of our region are best met when leaders work together. I am proud to have worked closely with our local mayors to make our cities a better place to live by investing in students and schools, enhancing public safety, and addressing public health threats like valley fever and fighting for clean drinking water.”

This year, Assemblymember Salas worked closely with local leaders to secure $8.7 million for public safety infrastructure in Kings County. In 2015, Assemblymember Salas again worked tirelessly with local mayors and law enforcement officers to secure $5 million for public safety infrastructure in Avenal, Corcoran and Lemoore. The funding, which was secured through close collaboration and effective leadership, is critical to keeping our neighborhoods and families safe.
