CALIFORNIA LEAGUE OF CONSERVATION VOTERS ENDORSES LAIRD FOR STATE SENATE

SACRAMENTO, CA – John Laird, who is running for State Senate District 17, today announced he has been endorsed by the California League of Conservation Voters (CLCV), the nation's oldest grassroots environmental political action organization.

"The California League of Conservation Voters is ecstatic to endorse John Laird for Senate District 17," said Mike Young, Political and Organizing Director of CLCV. "With our oceans and wildlife facing unprecedented, irreparable damage, we need the bold, experienced, and smart leadership of John Laird in our Senate. He has been a champion for California's environment as a City Councilmember, an Assemblymember, and as Secretary for Natural Resources, and we have no doubt he will continue to lead in the Senate."

CLCV publishes the annual California Environmental Scorecard, which rates the actions of every state legislator and the governor on the state's environmental priorities each legislative year. John Laird has a 100% CLCV lifetime score.
