

Microgrids, Resiliency, and Wildfires: Why it Matters

MONDAY
August 26
Noon - 1 pm

State Capitol Room 113

MODERATOR

Dr. Sarah Brady

Deputy Director of the California Council on Science and Technology (CCST)

SPEAKERS

Mick Wasco

Installation Energy Manager at Marine Corps Air Station Miramar, on mission readiness and energy security

Ted Lawson

VP of Global Real Estate and Facilities, Extreme Networks, on the need for reliable power for today's cutting edge businesses

Dr. Jack Brouwer

Director of Advanced Energy and Power Program, UC Irvine, on how microgrids fit into California's clean energy and climate goals

Vipul Gore

CEO Gridscape on microgrid technology, deployment and operations for disaster preparedness

RSVP

RSVP to William Gary from the University of California Irvine at wmg@nfcrc.uci.edu.
Lunch provided at end of program.

