Walnut, CA –Today UNITE HERE Local 11 has endorsed Mayor Andrew Rodriguez for the California State Assembly, strengthening his momentum for the March 2020 Primary Election. Local 11 represents over 30,000 workers employed in hotels, restaurants, airports, sports arenas, and convention centers throughout Southern California and the 55th Assembly District.

“The workers of UNITE HERE Local 11 are proud to endorse Mayor Rodriguez for the State Assembly,” said Ada Briceno, Co-President of UNITE HERE Local 11. “Andrew will place working families at the forefront of his service and will be a champion for us in Sacramento.”

“I’d like to thank UNITE HERE Local 11 for their support,” said Mayor Andrew Rodriguez. “Protecting the rights of workers is vital for a strong and fair economy and for the quality of life in our state.”

Andrew Rodriguez is a lifelong resident of the 55th State Assembly District and currently serves on the Walnut City Council as Mayor. When elected to the City Council, Andrew was the youngest councilman serving in Los Angeles County. Born and raised in Walnut, Andrew attended public schools before graduating Cum Laude from Rutgers University in New Jersey with a Bachelor’s Degree in Political Science and a Minor in Planning and Public Policy. He has a Masters of Real Estate Development from the University of Southern California and has private sector experience working for a land-use consulting firm in the San Gabriel Valley.

The 55th State Assembly District includes the communities of Walnut, Diamond Bar, Rowland Heights, La Habra, Chino Hills, Yorba Linda, Brea, Placentia, and portions of the City of Industry and West Covina. For a full list of endorsements, please visit AndrewRodriguezForAssembly.com.
